Applying to self ... then to students

Are you a clear example of what you would like your students to become ?

Our PDP aimed to create the context for;

- Self-awareness
- Self-reflection
- Self - development

When you're teaching @ you're best your like what ?

Streams of information
Like northern lights

How can you embed the PDP themes directly into the curriculum?

What is one thing, completely within your control, that you can do to embed more professionalism into your practice?
